

Course Schedule
AVG 201 International Aviation

Class Schedule: (Spring 2018):

				research project
Week 7	International Service Agreements	Overview of International Aviation Agreements, Bilateral and Open Skies agreements	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question
			Individual research for research project
Week 8	Global Aviation Companies and Trends	Review of global companies/trends Boeing, Airbus, BITRE, Bombardier, BAESystems and global demand for pilots	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question
				Submission of draft research paper sections
Week 9	International Flight Operations Overview	Overview and identify basic differences experienced in international operations (Regs/Crew Qualifications/Equipment /Planning a trip/Oceanic Navigation/Flight). Also review procedures for a flight from USA to Canada including immigration/custom requirements.	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question
			Individual research for research project
Week 10	International Flight Operations Case Studies	Assess two case studies from former NMC Aviation graduates who are now B777 International Pilots: Case Study 1: International Flight Operations with Emirates Airlines Case Study 2: International Flight Operation with Lufthansa Cargo	Pilot Case Studies Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question	Case Studies Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question
			Individual research for research project	Submission of final draft of individual research paper
Week 11	Cross Cultural Awareness, Etiquette and Communication	Overview of aspects to consider when travelling and working overseas relating to cross cultural awareness, etiquette and communication	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question	Weekly quiz Weekly discussion question
			Individual research for research project
Week 12	Final Exam		Final Exam	Final Exam

The above schedule is just a guideline to make sure we fit in the applicable curriculum and materials for the semester. Actual schedule may be adjusted according to the class needs.